

Vacancy for Third-Six Pupils

Doughty Street Chambers is a leading human rights chambers with a busy and successful criminal defence practice. We are currently recruiting for Third-Six Pupils, to commence in October 2010, to specialize in criminal work.

Suitable candidates will have recently completed a criminal law pupillage and will already have substantial advocacy experience. Third six pupils can expect to appear in court regularly.

To apply, candidates should complete and submit an application form which can be downloaded from our website at www.doughtystreet.co.uk/opportunities . The closing date for applications is 5pm on Friday 10th September 2010.

For further information please contact Graham Briggs, Senior Criminal Clerk, on 020 7404 1313 or g.briggs@doughtystreet.co.uk

Chambers operates an equal opportunities policy.

Doughty Street Chambers, 54 Doughty Street, London, WC1R 2LS

Tel: 020 7404 1313